A “Night of Comedy” Presented by
The Three Strohm Sisters Family Foundation

6th Annual Comedy fundraiser for cancer research

Levittown, New York – March 23, 2006: The Three Strohm Sisters Family Foundation will be presenting their 6th annual “Night of Comedy” to raise money for cancer research. The event, hosted by Long Island’s newest comedy star Chris Monty, will take place on Sunday May 21 at Governors Comedy Club in Levittown, Long Island.

“We are so happy to be hosting our 6th comedy show”, says Kathy Sarna, Secretary-Treasurer of The Three Strohm Sisters Family Foundation. “With the support of so many people we look forward to having a successful night by raising money for a great cause”.

Tickets will be sold in advance and can be purchased by calling 516-561-3512.

The Three Strohm Sisters Family Foundation is a non-profit organization founded in 1999 by three sisters who were all inflicted with breast cancer. As cancer survivors they found strength in organizing a foundation to support those battling this dreadful disease by sponsoring events that will raise money for research. Today the Strohm Foundation donates all proceeds to the Samuel Waxman Cancer Research Foundation.
